If you are Jonathan Chu you have a right to ask the court to return your property to you if you think you do not owe the money to the Government that it says you do, or if you think the property the Government is taking qualifies under one of the above exemptions.

The instructions for objection to the Answer of the Garnishee and for obtaining a hearing on the objections are set forth in the "Notice of Garnishment and Instructions to the Above-named Defendant" served upon you by the United States of America.

At the hearing you may explain to the judge why you think you do not owe the money to the Government. If you do not request a hearing within 20 days of receiving this notice, a Court Order will be entered attaching the wages, monies, and/or commissions which will then be applied against the judgment owed the Government.
